Cottages Resident Spotlight Love Story Meet Tony and Sharon Villanueva The Cottages of Meridian

Tony and Sharon Villanueva met during middle school in Emmett, Idaho. Tony said Emmett was a small town where everyone knew everybody, and would all hang out together after school. He said, "I had a crush on Sharon from the first time I met her." During their senior year they started dating. Tony recalled taking Sharon to the movies on their first date. Right after graduating high school, they got engaged and four months later they were married in Payette, Idaho. They had a double wedding on September 10, 1954 with Sharon's sister. Their love story has lasted for 67 years. They have four children, eleven grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren.

Once Tony finished college, they moved to Oregon where Tony taught Spanish, History, and coached basketball, baseball, and football for 35 years. He was named one of the best coaches in Oregon and was inducted into the Hall of Fame. While Tony was busy with school, they together had four children. While raising their children they stayed busy with sporting events and school activities. Sharon fell sick with multiple sclerosis, and they moved back to Emmett to be closer to family. Tony, continued to teach at Emmett High School and Sharon stayed at home. Recently, Sharon and Tony moved to The Cottages of Meridian where they enjoy spending time together. They love it at The Cottages and stated, "the caregivers are amazing! They take good care of us."

Tony's advice for a happy marriage is, "Let your wife think she's the boss".

The Cottages January Photo Contest

Each month, we pick a subject to photograph for our Cottages Monthly Photo Contest. The theme for January has been Snowman. To find the perfect photo, the residents have had to be creative. They go on walks, golf cart rides, look within their own homes and go on weekly bus rides. The location with the most "likes" this month is The Cottages of Mt. Home! Congratulations!

Please see our Facebook page for all our contest submissions and pictures of other activities.
